

Natalie Peterson is a Los Angeles based dancer signed to The Movement Talent Agency. Her recent credits include being the assistant choreographer and dancer for Karol G's Bichota Tour, the Moschino fashion film "Lightning Strikes," the 2021 Billboard Awards and the Bellagio Glam New Years Eve show with Infiniti Creative. Natalie specializes in Latin Ballroom and recently became a World Champion in American Rhythm at Embassy Ball. She is still actively competing in dancesport competitions with her coach Jason Daly and will be appearing on the scene with a new amateur partner later this year. Besides performing and competing, Natalie loves teaching ballroom to young dancers across the nation as well as choreographing latin fusion pieces for competitive studios. She is on faculty at Hollywood Connection as the ballroom teacher and also travels to studios all over the country to teach master classes. Natalie graduated from Chapman University in 2020 with two bachelor's degrees in Dance and Public Relation/Advertising, which she aspires to use to pursue a dance career that encompasses performance, teaching, and choreography. Outside of dance, Natalie has always had a passion for fitness and is a certified Lagree instructor!
